

BCLA SPIRIT CHAMPION – BOX LACROSSE

Criteria: The BC Lacrosse Association's Spirit Champion Award – Box Lacrosse, is to recognize an individual who has gone beyond the call of duty this past box season working through the Covid issues and getting players back to playing lacrosse while promoting and celebrating the spirit of volunteerism. Each nominee will be the winner for their local community Minor Association/Senior Team.

Member Organization Eligibility: Each Minor Box Association/Senior Box Team President within the BC Lacrosse Association is eligible to nominate one individual. Associations/Teams must have participated in the 2021 Box season to be eligible to submit a nomination.

Nomination Process:

- Nomination forms are available on the BCLA website
- Nomination forms must be completed in full, accompanied with a good quality photo (from the waist up) and signed by the Association's/Team's President.
- Nominations will not be accepted verbally.
- Nomination forms must include a brief description describing the nominee's accomplishment
- The nominated individual will be named as the Spirit Champion Award Winners for their respective Association.

Award Components:

At the 2021 BCLA AGM, Saturday, October 16 the BCLA will present a slide show announcing each recipient with a photo and brief write up.

DEADLINE FOR NOMINATIONS: Thursday, Sept 30, 2021 – 4:00 PM
