Port Coquitlam to host U20 Women's Lacrosse National Team Tryout

Port Coquitlam, BC—Port Coquitlam will welcome dozens of Team Canada hopefuls in July for the second regional tryout of the 2024 U20 Women's National Team selection process.

From July 1-2, 2023, Team Canada coaches will be evaluating players at the Port Coquitlam regional camp, as they build the next national team, set to compete at the 2024 World Lacrosse Women's U20 World Championships in Hong Kong.

Registration opens on February 1, 2023, at 12 p.m. ET, and costs $300 plus provincial tax per registrant. Players are allowed to register for any of the four regional tryouts, but they are not permitted to register for more than one event. Each player registered will receive a Nike Lacrosse Canada t-shirt, practice shorts, and pinnie to keep.

Please note, for players to be eligible to compete in the 2024 World Lacrosse Women's U20 World Championships in Hong Kong, they must be born after Aug 31, 2003, and before Aug 14, 2009.

Athletes applying for the tryout will be required to sign a Lacrosse Canada National Team Athlete Agreement, which outlines the rules, regulations and policies that they must follow, a photo release waiver, liability waiver, and meet all anti-doping education and testing requirements set forth by the CCES or WADA.

For more information, please see the registration portal.
